

Barrow Town Hall

Tues 10th June '14
2-6pm

Love Barrow

HERITAGE

An event to explore and celebrate
Barrow's extraordinary heritage
Stalls, talks and activities. EVERYONE WELCOME!

Love Barrow
HERITAGE

Barrow Town Hall - Tuesday 10th June 2014, 2 - 6pm

EVERYONE WELCOME - Free admission and refreshments

Join us for an event to explore and celebrate Barrow's extraordinary heritage. Talks, films, stalls and workshops about heritage activities in the area. Just drop in or stay for the whole event - and maybe even get involved!

- 2.15pm Welcome - Heritage Lottery Fund and Barrow Borough Council
- 2.30pm 'The German Who Came to Tea' - Award winning short film - Loren Slater, Signal Film & Media
- 3.00pm Barrow's Wildside Project - Jamie Norrington, Cumbria Wildlife Trust
- 3.30pm Piel Island to North Walney - Maddi Nicholson, Art Gene
- 4.00pm Heritage skills workshop - Sam Riches, Regional Heritage Centre, Lancaster University
- 4.30pm From Headlands to Headspace - Susannah Bleakley, Morecambe Bay Partnership
- 5.00pm Mill Restoration and Community Engagement - Audrey Steeley & Shaun Blezzard, Heron Corn Mill
- 5.30pm Rounding off: key themes emerging from the day

2 - 6pm Workshops, exhibitions and stalls

Cumbria Council for Voluntary Services, Furness Abbey Fellowship, Signal Film & Media, DARE Dance, Art Gene, Furness Multicultural Community Forum, Barrow Community Organisers, Cumbria Wildlife Trust, Heron Corn Mill, Cambridge Primary School, Furness Creatives, Creative Futures Cumbria, St. James' Church, North West Evening Mail, Ulverston Victoria High School, The Dock Museum, Cumbria Development Education Centre, Morecambe Bay Partnership, English Heritage, Heritage Lottery Fund, Costumed Interpreters, tours and much, much more.

Evening Mail