There are two monuments to him inside the Church:
The first (a brass plaque) is just inside the Priest’s door in the South Crossing- 1881-1931: To the Glory of God and in appreciation of 50 years service by Canon Sutton CBE as Vicar of this Parish the electric lights were installed in this Church by public subscriptions Sept 1932.
The second is on the north wall of the Quire: In loving memory of MARGARET GRISELDA SUTTON/who died on 10 May 1987/aged 99/also of her husband/Air Marshal/Sir Bertine Entwistle Sutton/who died on 28 September 1946/aged 59/the only son of/Alfred Sutton/Vicar of Bridekirk/who died on 23 October 1938/aged 87.

He had been awarded the CBE in 1920 (promulgated on page 3772 of the London Gazette dated 26th March 1920), for services as Chairman of the Cumberland & Westmorland Appeal Tribunal (where men appealed against their military conscription).

From the Whitehaven News obituary (which also has a photograph of him) we know that he had been a JP since 1901 (at one time Chairman of the bench), and a foundation member of the Cumberland County Council (formed 1888), and had been Chairman since 1914. At his death he was the only original member still serving on the council. He was also Chairman of Cockermouth Rural District Council, for 57 years until two weeks before his death. Since 1885 he had been a member of the Cockermouth Board of Guardians and Chairman of the Cumberland Public Assistance Committee. He was also Chairman of the Papcastle Parish Council since formation in 1894, Chairman of the Cockermouth Assessment Committee, and of the Derwent Fishery Board since 1913, Chairman of the County Insurance Committee since 1912, of the Cumberland Coal Trade Conciliation Board since 1928, of the Cockermouth School Governors, of the Cockermouth Industrial School Committee, & of the town branch of the Counties Savings Bank.

Previously he had been vice-chairman of the County Education Committee, a member of the Newton Rigg Farm School Committee, and a member of the governing body of the Workington Technical School.

An account of his funeral is on page 7 of the Whitehaven News of 27th October 1938 (the obituary is on page 4).

He was also a keen fox hunter. In 1878 he travelled to Abyssinia and Sudan, where he worked for General Gordon of Khartoum (by then Governor of Sudan), investigating the outflow of water from Lake Tana into the Blue Nile, and later into supply of wells on the railway route from Berber to the Red Sea. It was in Abyssinia that he had first learnt to hunt game.

This was on the eastern outskirts of Hull, near Hedon. He died at Dover Street, Hull on 3rd September 1949.

When he left St. James’ his grand-daughter (Gillian Henson) advises us that he was presented with a very fine Gothick clock by Winterhalder & Hoffmeier,from Schwarzenbach in the Black Forest.
The clock, which was modelled on the facade of one of the Cambridge colleges, still keeps excellent time.

death in January 1953, aged 84.
While in Whitehaven he lived in lodgings at 32 Scotch Street, a confirmed bachelor, but a great leader of the Church Lads Brigade.
His death made national news because of its nature. Warleggan had just 160 inhabitants. He was a vegetarian, non smoker and teetotaler. His strict views on the social life of the village caused a rift, and then a feud as he would not allow whist drives and dances. Gradually the congregation dropped away to nil, but he still took two services each Sunday. Gradually he became a hermit at his own vicarage, receiving just the odd tradesman, living behind a barbed wire barricade. He is thought to have fallen down the stairs, and was undiscovered for several days.

He then returned (by invitation of the Church, upon the living becoming vacant) to Patterdale in 1967. He retired in 1977, but remained in the valley, where he died on 18th February 1985, at the age of 77. His grave is next to the main (south) entrance door.

From the guide book of Patterdale Parish Church we know that he radiated warm friendship towards all that he met. After retirement he kept ‘open house’ for all who came to see him. His sermons were appreciated for their brevity, and the thoughts which they provoked. Sometimes the congregation would sing as a hymn the song from the musical ‘The hills are alive with the sound of music’, illustrating the dale which he loved.

He was deaconed at Lanercost Priory on 23rd December 1945, and started at St. James the next day. On 20th January 1949 he moved to St. Aidan’s, Carlisle. No other trace has been found of this gentleman in the 1941 or 1967 Crockfords, and the name is too common to trace through the GRO indexes.

GRAHAM WILLIAM HARRINGTON HARTLEY  1985 to 1988

Graham was born in 1921 in the Conwy area of North Wales, but his family moved to Knowsley, Merseyside early in his life and that was where he grew up.

He started a career in banking but then the Second World War came. He was wounded on VE day and spent a considerable time in Hospital recuperating from a leg injury. During that time he decided to enter the ministry, though it was to be some years before that was to become a reality.

He was ordained on 23rd September 1962 and served his curacy at St. Cuthbert, North Meols (Southport) to 1965. He then went to Kano (Nigeria) for a year. On his return to the UK he became the Vicar of his home parish- Knowsley St. Anne (Merseyside) from 1966 to 1972. He was, however, a country Vicar at heart and moved to Langdale (Chapel Stile) Holy Trinity in 1972. He stayed there until 1981, and was a member of the Langdale and Ambleside Mountain Rescue Team.

He moved to Egremont in 1981 (where he worked with Canon Eric Chapman), where he had responsibility for Haile and Wilton. The new team ministry at Egremont was inaugurated on 23rd June 1981. He is remembered with great fondness by the villagers for his wonderful pastoral care, but also for introducing many of them to fell walking of the adventurous kind. This was when he took a party of young and old up Great Gable via the Gable Girdle, around Angel’s Leap, up the Sphinx Gulley and via Westmorland Crags. Many were quaking at the knees after this memorable ascent but a group of the parish went on many more scrambling trips, including to areas of Scotland recommended by Graham.

He arrived in Haile after the sale of the Vicarage (much regretted by priest and people alike), so lived at the Gulley Flatts Rectory (4 Fell View Drive), initially with his older sister Vere Harrington Staff until her death on 21st December 1982.

In 1985 he moved to the Parish of Whitehaven as Team Vicar & Hospital Chaplain, taking up those posts on 4th December. A peal of 1,260 Grandire Triples was rung for this occasion.

The Chaplaincy had been held for many years by Hensingham St. John, although the Vicar of St. James had also frequently been the Chaplain of the old Infirmary in the town before the West Cumberland Hospital was built. The Chaplaincy was the major part of Graham’s work here, and many will remember his quiet but inspired leadership in fully integrating the Hospital into the ministry and life of the Parish. A Parish Visiting Team to the Hospital was quickly set up, and many will remember taking part in the services at the Chapel- both on a Sunday afternoon and at major festivals. The Hospital Services at Christmas and Easter were an important part of the celebrations of the Parish. While he was in Whitehaven he lived at the then Vicarage on Leathwaite. His work at the Hospital was continued by Russell Rebert and then Ian Grainger until 1994. While he was at Kells St. Peter John Kelly was also Chaplain from 2003 to 2005.

He retired from Whitehaven back to his beloved hills of Langdale from 20th May 1988 (Whit Sunday). There he took up an advisory role again in the Mountain Rescue Team and took up water colour painting.

His health began to deteriorate in the summer of 2010 and he died at Staveley Abbey retirement home on 16th March 2011, and was buried at Langdale New Cemetery on 29th March 2011. This beautifully located cemetery is behind the village school, on the opposite side of the main road from the Church. We thank the Parish of Egremont for their considerable assistance in the preparation of this obituary.
