

Department of History

Local and Regional History Seminar Series, 2013-14

Highlighting the fruits of recent research, this new seminar series will show how local studies may contribute to wider historical debates and introduce particular archival sources. Wednesdays, 5.00-7.00 p.m. in FASS Building, Meeting Room 2/3. Entry is free.

16 Oct. 2013

Photographic collections at the Museum of Lakeland Life and Industry
James Arnold MA

13 Nov. 2013

The use – and reuse – of maps in the early-modern Court of Duchy Chamber
Dr William Shannon

22 January 2014

Managing decline: Lancaster merchants and the West Indies, c.1800-50
Dr Michael Winstanley

19 Feb. 2014

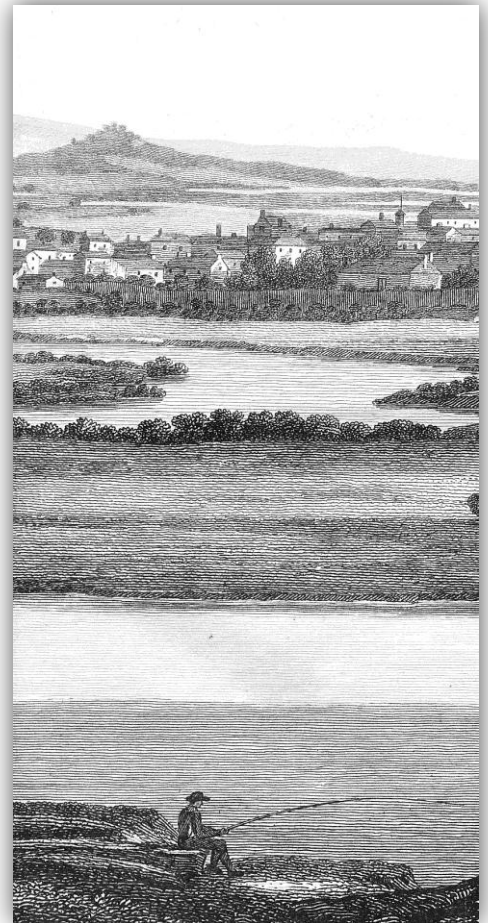

'Long rides over trackless commons and rough roads': The Parochial Visitations of Chancellor Walter Fletcher, 1814 to 1844
Dr Jane Platt

26 March 2014

'The Big Show': the beginnings of cinema in Carlisle, 1895-1920.
Dr Chris Brader

30 April 2014

'The Hardness of the Times': Economic crises in north-west England, 1600-1750. Dr Jonathan Healey

Further details:

<http://www.lancaster.ac.uk/fass/history/event>