

Ancient Monuments in this township

1923 List

CARLATTON

Tumulus; ¼ m. E.N.E. of Carlatton farm. Bronze arrowheads found 70 yds. to N.E. of tumulus in 1854 (Ordnance map; T. H.B. Graham, N.S. XX, 27).

Site of old church,

(a) S. of Carlatton farm (R. S. Ferguson, O.S.iv, 252).

(b) Graveslabs at the farm; one of Henry de Newton, presented to the living 1330; one, over barn door, of ?Robt. de London, 1320 (R. S. Ferguson, O.S. iv, 252).

Old road: " Brampton Street " leading to Brampton from the south (Bounder of 1613 ; N.S. xx, 25)

Old dykes: "in Brampton streitte . . . unto the double dykes next to Carlatton . . . to an old dyke adjoining upon the head dyke of Castlecarrock . . . to the head dyke of Brakanthwait; to the head dyke of Albyfield . . . to the head dyke of Cumrew to the river Carne." (ibid.)

See Pastscape for much more detail on these and more entries (15 in total – though there may be some overlap with adjacent townships)).