

Ancient Monuments in this township

1926 List

CARTMEL FELL

Church, St. Anthony's, built c. 1504; restored 1911 (J. F. Curwen, N.S. xii, 285). "Cowmire Hall pew," a parclose of early 16th cent. with parts of a rood-screen. "Burblethwaite quire," Jacobean, rebuilt 1811. Pulpit, 1698; altar, rails and font 1712; two bells, one of 1734; pitchpipe. Glass of 15th cent. (Canon J. T. Fowler, N.S. Xii, 297; H. F. Wilson, N.S. xx, 345). Oaken rood figure (N.s. xii, 294). Mounting block in churchyard.

Domestic:

- (a) Hodge Hill, of Philipsons, 17th cent. (o.s. xiii, 30o).
- (b) Thorphinsty Hall, of Huttons, 17th-18th cent. (Stockdale, op.cit., 510).
- (c) Burblethwaite Hall, of Robinsons, 18th cent.; modernized (ibid., 511).
- (d) "Cornelius' shop," old hut below Blakeholme (ibid., 528).

Old road: packhorse-track, Bowland bridge to Sow howe made turnpike 1819 (ibid., 525) .
243)

See Pastscape for much more detail on these and more entries.