

Ancient Monuments in this township

1923 List

CASTLE SOWERBY

Motte: Castlehow, ½m. S.W. of Southernby (T. H. B. Graham, N.S. xii, 186), dismantled before 1237 (N.S. xxii, 114).

Ring-mound, at Howgill, 21 yds. diam. (Whellan, 519-20).

Church

- (a) St. Kentigern's; built 12th cent., lengthened at both ends c. 1250; S. aisle and porch, late 16th cent. ; altered early 19th cent. and restored 1889.
- (b) St. Kentigern's well.
- (c) Raughton head, chapel rebuilt 1666 (Bacon Lib. Regis) or 1678 (N. and B. ii, 348), 1761; church restored 1881.

Pele-tower, Thistlewood, W.N.W. of Highhead.

Old roads :

- (a) "Mabil Cross " by the church to Brigwath at Millhouses, thence to Caldbeck, mentioned 1217, 1300 ; and Haltcliff bridge
- (b) road thence to Uldale mentioned 1217 (N.S. v. 43 T. H. B. Graham, N.S. xii 185).
- (c) Corpse cross, site 100 yds. N.W. of C9wrigg, on ancient road to church.

Find: Bronze celt, 1864, 300 yds. S.W. of Cockley gill bridge

See Pastscape for much more detail on these and more entries (40 in total – though there may be some overlap with other townships).