

Ancient Monuments in this township

1923 List

CORNEY

Cairns :

- (a) Corney fell, $\frac{3}{4}$ m. E. of Charles ground.; $\frac{1}{4}$ m. S.E , $\frac{1}{2}$ m. E. of High Kinmont.
- (b) "Camp" $\frac{1}{3}$ m. W. of N. from the church.

Priory : Lekely Priory, of Benedictine nuns, 12th cent.; remains at Seaton Hall; E end of chapel and parts of buildings (Parker, Gosforth, chap. x11). " The Nuns' Pool," $\frac{1}{2}$ m from Seaton Hall.

Church,

- (a) St. John the Baptist's, founded c. 1150; much restored 1874. N. door of nave and S. door of chancel re-found 1882. Bells, 1614 and 1621.
- (b) Old rectory, ruins with 15th and 16th cent. work; also one graveslab, late 13th cent., as lintel of [tithe ?] barn (O.S. iv, 148).
- (c) Base of old font on a gatepost; bowl of old font in a garden up the valley (Parker, Gosforth, chap. xv)

See Pastscape for much more detail on these and more entries (18 in total – though there may be some overlap with other townships).