

Ancient Monuments in this township

1923 List

CROGLIN

Church

- (a) St. John Baptist's, rebuilt 1878. Effigy of a lady, 14th cent. (O.S. xv, 431).
- (b) Graveslabs :—? of bp. Robert de Chaussé, 1278; of " Hisabela," early 14th cent. (Rev. R. S. G.Green, O.S. xiv, 210) ;
- (c) cross in circle and sword, lately found, 41 by 14 inches;
- (d) inscribed slab, 40 by 14 inches, ? " IN HA]C TUMBA TR"
- (e) floriated cross at each end of stem, 64 by 15 inches (Rev. A. S. Newton).

Pele-tower forming part of Rectory, 30 by 18 ft., walls 3 ft. 3 in. thick; ? 16th cent. (T. H. B. Graham, N.S. xx, 34; Curwen, Castles, 364).

Sites:

Lawyer's cross and Farlam Currick.

"Tom Smith's Stone," where four parishes meet on county boundary
(T. H. B. Graham, N.S. xx, 35).

Find: at quarry near Croglin, 1883, stone moulds for casting bronze spearheads (M. W. Taylor, O.S. vii, 279)

See Pastscape for much more detail on these and more entries (9 in total – though there may be some overlap with adjacent townships)).