

Ancient Monuments in this township

1923 List

CUMREW

Tumulus: Cardunnock pike or Catkirk; skeleton found (Whellan, 672).

Pit dwellings: E. of Cardunnock pike.

Foundations: Dunwalloght Castle, on W. side of a hollow in the escarpment of Cumrew fell (T. H. B. Graham, N.S. ix, 218).

Church

(a) St. Mary's, rebuilt 1890. Effigy (R. S. Ferguson, O.S.xii, 65 ; Bower, O.S. xv, 431).

(b) Bell of 15th cent. and one of 1750.

Domestic : 17th cent. roof-timbers in buildings on Cumrew farm

See Pastscape for much more detail on these and more entries (66 in total – though there may be some overlap with adjacent townships)).