

Ancient Monuments in this township

1926 List

DUNNERDALE AND SEATHWAITE

Cairns. below Irongate, opposite Gaitscale on the Duddon; and between Stainton ground and Hollow moss (o.s. iii, 254).

Walled enclosures: Longhouse close, with partition and square huts; a hut and garth $\frac{1}{2}$ m. S.S.W. of the above; an enclosure $\frac{1}{3}$ m. S. of the last; and an enclosure, cairns and standing stone on Dunnerdale fell $\frac{1}{3}$ m. N.E. of Stonestar (H. S. Cowper, Archæologia, lin).

Dyke, S. of Appletreeworth.

Roman road, Three Shires stone to Cockley beck (N.s. xv, 191;xix, 27-29).

Church,

(a) now Holy Trinity. Chapel existing 1547; pulpit 1697; chapel enlarged 1796, rebuilt 1875 (H. Gaythorpe, N.S. ii, 304).

(b) Quaker cemetery, opposite Ulpha Inn, mentioned 1765.

Bloomery, $\frac{1}{2}$ m. N. of Stonestar enclosures (o.s. iii, 254; viii, 86).

*Old roads :*Walna scar to Seathwaite church, and up the Duddon. Birks bridge and stepping stones.

See Pastscape for much more detail on these and more entries (32 in total – though there may be some overlap with other townships).