

Ancient Monuments in this township

1923 List

LAMPLUGH

Standing stones: Stockhow Hall (Jefferson, Allerdale, 83)

Earthwork: W. of Gatra; a worn-down ring-mound (W. Dickinson, O.S. iii, 346).

Church: St Michael's; much restored 1870. Tradition in the Machel MSS. that the church was moved here from Kirkland in Kelton, 12th cent. Lamplugh vault and monuments.

Pele-tower destroyed c. 1812 at Lamplugh Hall. Gateway 1595 with arms. Great table cut down 1881 for farm kitchen.

Well: " Houndy Well," formerly thought medicinal, near Limekiln (W. Dickinson, O.S. vi, 186 ; C. A. Parker, N.S. ix, 99).

Site of Lamplugh cross, destroyed shortly before 1842, at Lamplugh Arms Inn (ibid.)

Corpse rest, stone platform and pillar, Millgillhead (ibid.)

Old road : Ullock–Streetgate–Gatra. Foundations of road, sandstone and cobbles, found between Streetgate and Todhole (W. Dickinson, O.S. iii, 345).

Finds:

(a) Stone hammer, 1856, 400 yds. S.E. of Woodend (O.S. iii, 346)

(b) Stone hammer, 1874, between Scalesmoor and Benthow.

(c) Stone hammer, 1875, ½ m. S.S.W. of Mockerkin tarn.

See Pastscape for much more detail on these and more entries (84 in total – though there may be some overlap with other townships).