

Ancient Monuments in this township

1926 List

LANGDALES

Cairns and enclosures:

- (a) Mickleden (o.s. iii 254);
- (b) under Kettle Crag
- (c) above Dale End, Little Langdale (H. S. Cowper, N.S. i,135).

Foundations :

- (a) Blea Moss, between Fellfoot and Blea Tarn;
- (b) beside the Wrynose road, above the first bridge from Fellfoot (ibid. 129, 135).

Earthworks

- (a) at Baisbrown
- (b) ? Terraced mound at Fellfoot; ?
- (c) Thing mount (H. S. Cowper, O.S. xi, 1).

Roman road, Fellfoot to Three Shires stone (N.s. xxi, 29).

Church Great Langdale, now Holy Trinity; pre-Reformation chapel rebuilt 1857. Ancient chapel said to have stood at Chapel mire (N. & B. i, 175). Plague burials, " Sepulchre," between Oakhouse and Side House (Miss Armitt, N.S. Viii, 196).

Domestic:

- (a) Fellfoot, panel of Fletcher Fleming, d. 1716 (o.s. xi, 5).
- (b) Baisbrowne, Oakhowe and Elterwater Hall (N.s. viii, 172).

Old iron works, Hacket, before 1653 (N. & B. i, 191) and mill sluice (N.s. viii, 148, 167-8)

See Pastscape for much more detail on these and more entries (73 in total – though there may be some overlap with other townships).