

Ancient Monuments in this township

1926 List

LONG MARTON

Earthworks: at " Birks Head, ½m. S.W. of Dufton church (O.M.).

Roman road, Hangingshaw to Kirkbythore.

Church, mentioned 1291; St. Margaret's quire named 1358 (Test. Karl. 17), now SS.

Margaret and James. Long-and-short work in quoins of nave, early light etc. on N. side. Early 12th cent. tympana (Calverley, Crosses, 229). Tower, late 12th cent. 15th cent. work on S. side with sedilia and piscina (Bower, o.s. xii, 208). S. window late Dec.; E. and W. windows of transept square-headed. Restoration 1880. Graveslab (N.s. vii, 171). Chest, medieval. Dial stone, built into E. end of S. aisle.

Domestic: Brampton Hall, of Burtons (N. & B. i, 363).

Bridge over Troutbeck mentioned 1357-8 (Test. Karl. 18).

See Pastscape for much more detail on these and more entries (53 in total – though there may be some overlap with other townships).