

Ancient Monuments in this township

LOWICK

Stone circle, ¼m. N. of Knapperthaw, 100 ft. diam. (H. S. Cowper, Archæologia, liii) ; formed of slabs as at Banniside (see CONISTON).

Ring-mound, 1/3m. W. of Goathwaite (H. S. Cowper, ibid.).

Cairn with containing circle, 2/3m. N.W. of Goathwaite (ibid.).

Church now St. Luke's; ancient chapel of St. Andrew mentioned 1292; rebuilt 1818 and 1885.

Tower: Lowick Hall; tower of de Lofwic, with circular stair; ancient wing partly replaced by buildings temp. Q. Anne (J. Fell, N.S. x, 499).

Beacon at Lowick (o.s. xiv, 143).

Finds:two perforated pebbles, at Lowick (B.N.F.C. xvii, 210).

See Pastscape for much more detail on these and more entries (63 in total – though there may be some overlap with other townships).