

Ancient Monuments in this township

1926 List

MALLERSTANG

Cairns (Greenwell, Brit. Barrows, 383). " Giant's graves " etc. between Lammerside and Pendragon (o.s. i, 25).

Roman: coin of Trajan and ring, 1922, at Pendragon (R. G. Collingwood, N.S. xxiii, 294).

Church, now St. Mary's; a (medieval?) chapel, restored 1663, 1879 and 1909.

Castles:

(a) Pendragon, ruins of keep; ditch on N. strengthened by Rob. de Clifford, c. 1300, rebuilt by Roger de Clifford, 1360-70; burnt 1541; rebuilt 1660; dismantled c. 1685 (Rev. J. Wharton, N.S. ii 408; Curwen, Castles, 121).

(b) Lammerside (Lambertseat), ruins. Tower and first hall 14th cent.; great hall later (H. S. Cowper, N.S. iv, 85; Curwen, Castles, 291).

(c) Bluegrass farm, round-headed arch and slit windows (J. F. Curwen) .

Pillar, 1664, on " Hugh's Seat," i.e. of Sir Hugh de Morville, 12th cent. (N.s. ii, 408).

See Pastscape for much more detail on these and more entries (82 in total – though there may be some overlap with other townships).