

Ancient Monuments in this township

1926 List

STAVELEY

Roman road, Watercrock to Ambleside, track not ascertained.

Church, now St. James'. The chapel of St. Margaret, built by Sir. Wm. de Thweng shortly before 1338 (Faner, Rec. of Kendale, i, 320). Old tower Perp.; church rebuilt 1865, restored 1887.

Site:Sattury, on the Kent (Mr. G. E. Moser).

Domestic :Hollin How or Hall (o.s. vi, 204) of Philipsons ; a late pele tower.

See Pastscape for much more detail on these and more entries.