

Ancient Monuments in this township

1923 List

ST. CUTHBERT'S WITHOUT AND WREAY

Roman:

- (a) road, diverging from Carlisle-Penrith road and passing Scalesceugh, where a milestone of Gordianus, tiles of the 9th legion, etc. were found, 1915, 1921 (F. Haverfield, N.S. xvi, 282 ;L. E. Hope, ibid. 289; N.S. xiii, 456).
- (b) Milestone of Carausius (F. Haverfield, O.S. xiii, 437).
- (c) Cemetery on Gallows Hill, Harraby; finds, 1829, 1847 (R. S.Ferguson, O.S. xii, 365), including tiled grave stone to Mars Ocelus, tombstone to F. Antigonus Papias (F. Haverfield, O.S.xiii, 165, 224).
- (d) Two stone coffins (Dr. Barnes, N.S. vi, 292).

Church: Wreay, St. Mary's, a 13th cent. chapel, rebuilt 1843.

Domestic: dovecot Wreay Hall, , 17th cent. (R. S. Ferguson, O.S. ix, 423).

St. Ninian's Well, Brisco, arched 19th cent. (O.S. iv, 422).

See Pastscape for much more detail on these and more entries (123 St Cuthbert Without in total including Wreay – though there may be some overlap with other townships).