

Ancient Monuments in this township

1926 List

APPLEBY ST. MICHAEL

Tumuli: two on Brackenber moor (O.M.).

Roman

- (a) camp, traces only, near Redlands, Crackenthorpe (R.S. Ferguson, o.s. xi, 312)
- (b) small fort, " Maidenhold " near it;
- (c) also three cremation-urns found (N. & B. i, 351).
- (d) Road, Hangingshaw to Coupland.
- (e) The Hangingshaw milestone (F. Haverfield, N.S. xv, 132; xvi, 283) now in Carlisle Museum.

Viking Age: 10th-11th cent. hogback at church (W. G. C. in Calverley, Crosses, 59) .

Church

- (a) St. Michael's, mentioned before 1120 (Prescott, Wetherhal, 39). Late 11th or 12th cent. window in tower. S. door and lancet c. 1220. Lady Chapel and S. aisle late 13th-14th cent. Church repaired 1659; restored and tower built 1886 (Rev. A. Warren, N.S. ix, 324). Three piscinae (o.s. xii, 208). Four graveslabs (N.s. vii, 168). Two bells, one 13th cent. and the other pre-Reformation. Fragments of 14th cent. glass Effigy of Eliz. Clifford, d. 1393. Oak chest, ? 15th cent.
- (b) Ancient chapel of Murton (N. & B. i, 355) ; church, St. John Baptist's, built 1855 ?
- (c) Site of St. Nicholas' hospital, N.W. of Appleby (H. Barnes, o.s. x, 100).
- (d) Site of Carmelite monastery in Battlebarrow (N.s. ix, 325) and Lady Well on site of Whitefriars, founded 1281 (N. & B. i, 343).
- (e) Site of St. Giles' chapel (or St. John's) and Chapel Well, Crackenthorpe (N. & B. i, 351; N.S. ix, 325)
- (f) Site of chapel, ¼m. from Hilton Bacon (N. & B. i, 354)

Domestic :

- (a) Crackenthorpe Hall of Machels, rebuilt 1685 (o.s. viii, 447)
- (b) Hilton Hall, ruins (N. & B. i, 354)

See Pastscape for much more detail on these and more entries (212 in total – though there may be some overlap with other townships).