

Ancient Monuments in this township

1926 List

TROUTBECK

Tumuli :

- (a) sites, " the Raise," Spying How, cist and bones found in 17th cent.;
- (b) Woundale Raise (N. & B. i, 188).

Roman road, the " Scot's Rake." Road supposed Roman in Woundale (o.s. iii 169).

Foundations:

- (a) three groups (shielings ?) under Hart Crag, on Sadgill (H. S. Cowper, N.S. i, 1 33-4) ;
- (b) on the Tongue, stoneheaps and dyke, and
- (c) (hut?) circle in Hird Wood (ibid. 1 35).
- (d) Site ?Gallow how (N. & B. i, 188).

Church: ancient chapel, repaired 1558 and consecrated as Jesus Chapel 1563; rebuilt 1736, repaired 1824 (G. Browne, o.s. iv, 23). Bell, 1631. Old font, in vicarage garden (N.s. v, 304).

Domestic: Town Head or End, of Brownes (o.s. xii, 84) .

Bridge Troutbeck marked on Saxton's map, 1576.

Finds:

- (a) Two stone Celts, c. 1899, Ibbotsholme (N.s. iii, 411).
- (b) Stone adze, 1m. N.W. of Sadgill foundations.
- (c) Celt at or near the Hird Wood circle.
- (d) Bronze spearhead at Woundale Raise,
- (e) quern 1½m. S.W. of the same (H. S. Cowper, N.S. i, 135).
- (f) Stone axe-hammer, 1884, at Troutbeck (o.s. ix, 203)

See Pastscape for much more detail on these and more entries.