

Historical versions of the placename of the township of Catterlen

| Spelling   | Date                              | Source        |
|--|-----------------------------------|---------------|
| Kaderleng   | 1158 (c. 1200),1190 (c. 1200) | VCH           |
| Caderlen  | 1165 (c. 1200)                    | VCH           |
| Katerlen  | 1201                              | P             |
| et passim , with variant spellings Cater- , Katir- ,Caterlyn | 1278                              | Ipm           |
| Katerlenn   | 1278, 1279                        | Ass           |
| Caterlenn(e)  | 1285                              | For           |
|  | 1341                              | Ass           |
| Katreleenn  | 1295                              | Ipm           |
| Catrelen  | 1332                              | SR            |
| Katerlan  | 1363                              | Pat           |
| Catterlen   | 1588                              | FF            |
| Karterlen   | 1227                              | FF            |
| Carterlyne  | 1572                              | BM            |
| Chaterlenne   | 1288                              | Ass           |
| Catterley   | 1576                              | S             |
|  | 1672                              | Blome         |
| Catterlaine   | 1657                              | PR (Newton R) |
| Carleton or Catterlen   | 1677                              | Rental        |
| Catterland  | 1722                              | Devonshire    |

The abbreviations for the sources are explained in the List of Abbreviations for Historic Placename Sources