

Historical versions of the placename of the township of Dunnerdale with Seathwaite

Spelling	Date	Source
DUNNERDALE
de Dunerdale	1293	LI
Dunerdale, Donerdale	1300	LF
Donesdale	a 1412	FC
Dunerdall	c 1550	RW 221
SEATHWAITE
Seathwhot	1592	RW 47
Seathwhat	1598,	RW 88
Seathut		Waugh

The place was named from Seathwaite Tarn, which is high up among the fells (1,210ft) above sea-level).

The abbreviations for the sources are explained in the List of Abbreviations for Historic Placename Sources