

SOURCES OF INFORMATION

- 1) A Catalogue of all the tithe maps in England and Wales has been produced –

R.J.P.Kain and R.R Oliver, The Tithe Maps of England and Wales: A Cartographic Analysis and County-by-County Catalogue – Cambridge U.P 2011

Prices vary - hardcover over £200, paperback about £75 (although Amazon offer at about £45)

- 2) The main depository of the actual documents is the National Archives (TNA) at Kew

The major record series are:

- Tithe apportionments (IR 29) which provide the names of landowners and occupiers, land use and tithe rentcharge
- Tithe maps (IR 30) which show numbered plots described in the apportionments
- Tithe files (IR 18) which contain the administrative records created while the Tithe Survey was being carried out.

Cumbria County Archives also hold a substantial number of tithe maps and associated documents. References and some detail are given in the township entries where they exist.
